Detectives seek assistance in a criminal solicitation of a minor case

APD Child Abuse Detectives are seeking the public's assistance in locating a suspect wanted for criminal solicitation of a minor.

On Wednesday, June 2, 2010 a 13-year-old female got off the bus at S. Pleasant Valley and E. Oltorf. As the victim was walking southbound on Pleasant Valley a White extended cap pickup truck passed her and made a U-turn. The suspect approached the victim and spoke to her in Spanish. The victim walked away from the suspect, made the block and parked where the victim would walk by him again. When she walked by again the suspect offered her money. The victim attempted to walk away and the suspect opened the passenger door and reached out touching the child on the hip area with his hand.

The suspect is described as:

Hispanic Male

30 years old

Green eyes with spots underneath his eyes

Slicked back brown hair, not very dark

Sideburns

Light skin

Medium build

The suspect spoke with heavily accented Spanish. The victim understands Spanish and said the suspect might be from Spain, El Salvador or possibly Nicaragua.

The suspect vehicle is a white, extended cab newer model truck with slightly tinted windows and $15,500 for sale on the right side of the back window written in shoe polish.

This case is under investigation by the APD Child Abuse Unit. Anyone with information is asked to call the Child Abuse Unit at 512-974-6860.
